

THE INTERNATIONAL COUNCIL OF COMMUNITY CHURCHES

Reconciling the broken and dividing lines among us into the larger circle of the human family...

Intentional involvement in ecumenical and interfaith dialogue prayer, and action in local, national and international arenas...

Sharing God's love in ministries of service among the "least of these."

"that they may all be one. As you, Father, are in me and I am in you, may they also be in us, so that the world may believe that you have sent me."

-John 17:21

BECOMING A MEMBER

You can accept this invitation...

1)...by having either the total membership of or a governing body of your church or center endorse the principles contained in our constitution. The endorsement could be voted as a resolution stating something like...

Whereas the _____ Church is committed to the ministry of reconciliation in church and society, and believes in congregational autonomy, freedom of conscience, and the conciliar ideal: We vote to join the International Council of Community Churches on this date of _____.

2) by completing and returning the form found on the opposite page, and

3) by agreeing to participate as you are able in the Council, seeking to meet the standard of sending one or more representatives to the Council's Annual Conference and to participate in regional or area meetings as available.

4) by giving financial support to the Council, seeking to meet the standard of giving each year at least one percent of your annual budget, exclusive of your giving to wider missions and exclusive of your giving to local building or other capital projects.

WHAT YOU GET:

Belonging to a warm fellowship of the beloved community, the body of Christ...

An exciting annual conference with Bible study, a diversity of worship and music, workshops, hands on mission and fellowship...

Association with the National Council of the Churches of Christ in the USA; the World Council of Churches; Churches Uniting In Christ; and Christian Churches Together.

Access to pension and benefits for church staff, clergy and lay...

The Christian Community throughout the year and The Inclusive Pulpit, sermons and resources for ministry...

Regional fellowship in clusters of member churches and centers...

A claim upon the unity that God has already given us in Christ and a participation in the reconciling work of the gospel.

One complimentary Annual Conference registration for a delegate from your church/center for the upcoming Annual Conference.

Advancing love of God and humanity; diversity and inclusiveness; ecumenical and interfaith life and work
